This vehicle was occupied by two Hispanic males who exited the vehicle and approached her residence on foot. Moments later Victim #2 heard a knock at her front and observed a Hispanic male, early 20's, tattoos on the upper arms, wearing a short sleeved shirt and denim cargo shorts. Victim #2 further explained that the second male described as a Hispanic male, lighter complexion, early 20's, tattoos on the upper arms, wearing similar clothing, was located at the rear door of her residence attempting to gain entry. This prompted Victim #2 to contact PSP Avondale at which time the Hispanic males fled the scene in the above listed vehicle. Victim #2 further explained that she observed a blue in color minivan following in trace of the white sedan as it fled the area.

A few minutes' later PSP Avondale Barracks members were dispatched to Glen Hope Road, Elk Township, Chester County for a reported Robbery which was committed following an interrupted burglary at the residence. Victim #1, while driving past his daughter's residence (Victim #3), observed a suspicious vehicle, blue in color Dodge Caravan mini-van, unknown registration, backed into the driveway. Victim #1 stopped and approached this vehicle on foot to investigate. Victim #1 then heard rustling coming from the interior of the garage and believed that the residence was being burglarized. Victim #1 was in the process of contacting PSP Avondale when a Hispanic male, dark hair, wearing a bandana covering his face, grey t-shirt and dark pants, appeared at the side of the garage and ordered him to the ground at gun point. Victim #1 described the weapon as a dark in color semi-automatic pistol. Victim #1 fled the front yard of the property on foot as the Hispanic male entered the blue in color Dodge Caravan mini-van and fled the scene westbound on Glen Hope Road towards Canterbury Court. The actor involved in this incident stole a rifle and ammo which was located in the residence.
